Re: Income Requirements for the Clientele of Public Service Organizations

The Cranston Department of Community Development is funded by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, in accordance with the Community Development Act of 1974. Community Development funds are available to those public service organizations that serve people having low to moderate incomes, adjusted for family size. In order to qualify for CDBG funds, at least 51% of the clientele of public service organizations must be low to moderate income people, based on the current income guidelines. There are several ways to meet this requirement:

- 1) Require information on family size and income so that it is evident that at least 51% of the clientele are persons whose family income does not exceed the low and moderate income limit. Evidence may be substituted that establishes that the person assisted qualifies under another program which has income qualification criteria at least as restrictive as that used in the definitions of "low and moderate income person" and "low and moderate income household" such as JTPA and welfare programs.
- 2) Have income eligibility requirements limiting your activity exclusively to low and moderate income persons;
- 3) Benefit a clientele who are generally presumed to be principally low and moderate income persons. Activities that exclusively serve a group of persons in any one or a combination of the following categories may be presumed to benefit persons, 51% of whom are low to moderate income: abused children, battered spouses, elderly persons, adults meeting the Bureau of Census' Current Population Reports definition of "severely disabled", homeless persons, illiterate adults, persons living with AIDS, and migrant farm workers.
- 4) Describe how the nature and, if applicable, the location of the facility or service establishes that it is used predominantly by low and moderate income persons.

Persons (15 years old and older) are considered to be severely disabled if they:

- 1) Use a wheelchair or another special aid for 6 months or longer;
- 2) Are unable to perform one or more functional activities, or need assistance with activities of daily living;
- 3) Are prevented from working at a job or doing housework;
- 4) Have a selected condition including autism, cerebral palsy, Alzheimer's disease, senility, dementia, or mental retardation;
- 5) Are less than 65 years of age and are covered by Medicare or receive Supplemental Security Income (SSI).

When preparing your application for CDBG funds for 2019-2020, please consider how your organization will satisfy the requirement that your organization's clientele will be at least 51% low to moderate income people.

If you have any questions, please feel free to call the Cranston Department of Community Development at 461-1000, ext. 6239.
