The applicant and his brother were very cooperative and helpful and they had their new security company there and had people at the door checking identifications. A couple of people were turned away who did not have IDs. As to the detail bill, he thinks it is down to $2,300 - $2,400 from the original of approximately $5,100.

Mr. Delgadillo stated that when he has events, he will contact the Police Department for detail and have the security company present. He also stated that he will be paying $1,000 a month for the detail owed.

Council President Farina stated they will be open every other Friday and Saturday until 1. Will notify the police for details when they have entertainment as well as security.

Councilman Lanni commended the applicants for proving themselves and cooperating with the Police and he does not see the need for them to come back to the Committee since the amount owed is almost paid.

Council Vice-President Favicchio agreed with Councilman Lanni.

Major Quirk indicated that the Colonel feels that it is a good idea to have two officers present for detail. Last Saturday went unfilled as no one took the detail. Friday there was only 1 officer. If they're unable to fill the details the sector cars will go by to check.
